

PMI Australia Project Manager of the Year Awards

The Project Manager of the Year award is open to any Project Manager working in Australia who has completed (or practically completed) a project (or major section of the Project) in the 12 months preceding the award cut off date. A Project Manager of the year will be chosen for each state chapter and the state chapter winners will compete for the Australian Project of the Year.

PMI Distinguished Contribution Awards Year Award

The Distinguished Contribution Award recognizes an individual who has expanded or advanced the project management profession in Australia or made significant contributions to the aims and objectives of PMI in the year preceding the award.

Closing date for nominations is 30th June 2010
